Are you above the line???

Listening not only helps you learn, it helps other succeed. When you’re a good listener, you communicate “you matter” to the person who’s speaking. Today communicate “you matter” to your teacher and classmates by listening to them.

Congratulations to the SBHS football team on an exceptional season. We are so proud of your effort, attitude, determination and enthusiasm this season. Coaches, thank you for your dedication to this team. The Scooper Nation is so proud of you! GO SCOOPERS!

MONDAY LUNCH

Italian chicken
Round pizza

TUESDAY LUNCH

Super nachos
Mini corn dogs

Interesting fact of the day: In 1893, an amendment was proposed to rename the United States into the “United States of the Earth.”

BHSU is sponsoring the Black Hills Math Circle, which is a math enrichment program to be held once per month during the school year. Their goal is to expose high school students to deeper mathematical topics. The second session is Saturday, November 3 and the topic is Cops, Robbers, and Graph Theory. If you are interested in attending, talk to any math teacher by October 31.

End of season team lift- ing & competitions!

Manny Gallosa, Mitchell Knutson &
Cedrick Stabber are hosting this fun event for their senior project!

Purpose: Get the team together for some fun competitions and contests to build team spirit & unity. Older players helping younger players with techniques and goals to use going forward in the off season.

WHO: 8-11 athletes planning on playing football next fall.

WHEN: 5 days of lifting & competition

Week 1: 10/29 & 10/31

Week 2: 11/5, 11/7 & 11/9

WHERE: SBHS weight room

WHY: Build teamwork & enhance good lifting technique for the off-season

Manny, Mitchell & Ced are looking for JR
& SR football players and upper level fitness students to volunteer to be mentors for this clinic and you will receive a volunteer certificate for your participation.
All players and mentors should be in the weight room, dressed and ready to go by 3:20 on Monday October 29th!
