My name is Brittan (Brit) Porterfield, and I'm so honored to serve your family. My wife, Jennifer, and I live just outside of Whitewood on her family's ranch. We have one daughter, Brighton, who is almost three-years-old. Previously, we both worked in the Belle Fourche School District, where she taught second graders, and I taught high-school students English. I look forward to partnering with you in your child's education. Enjoy the summer.
