Homecoming Week September 16 – 20 Theme Scooper in Space

Students in grades 2 through 6 are invited to an after-school workshop Thursday Sept. 12 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. that will review the importance of recycling and give tips for recycling in our community. Additionally, each participant will be part of an activity making a no-sew t-shirt bag. And, we have several fun prizes for those who attend - including Scooby Doo t-shirts and snacks. This event is funded by a Scooby Doo Go Doo Good grant and hosted by Meade County 4-H. If your child plans to attend, please RSVP to the 4-H Office at 347-2436. The workshop will be held in the county building west of the Meade County courthouse.

Oral Interp:

First practice for Oral interp at SWMS will be this week, Tuesday, September 10 after school from 3:30- 5:25 in Ms. Oviatt's room. Please remember your paper work. If you have questions, please email Mrs. Johnson at johnseli@meadeschools.org

Sports Announcements

Cross Country: We had an awesome first Cross Country meet of the season on Friday! All of our runners competed as hard as they could and got some great times for their first race! Some highlights: Ethan Graf (1st place, 6th grade division), Ty Petrocco (7th place, 7th/8th grade division), Ty Ferguson (8th place, 7th/8th grade division), Avery Thurman (5th place, 6th grade division), Sayde Hunt and Tori Williams (top 20, 6th grade division), and Addisyn Jolley (15th place, 8th grade girls). Great job to ALL our runners! APOLOGIES! Coach Bruch missed someone in yesterday's cross-country announcement!
