STUDENT SUSPENSION/EXPULSION

Serious breaches of standards of behavior may result in suspensions or expulsions from school. The principal may suspend a student for up to ten school days, and the superintendent may suspend a student for up to ninety days. The Board may suspend or expel a student for any number of days up to twelve months. In the event of a suspension by the superintendent for more than ten school days, the pupil or parent/guardian may appeal to the Board.

Hearing procedures as established by state regulations will be followed by the Board. Additional procedures mandated by state and federal law apply to special education students attending schools under the terms of an I.E.P. (Individual Education Plan)
