Word of the Week: Interpret Students should write their understanding of the passage in their own words. They should start by asking themselves, “What does the _____ mean?” Students should give a view from their experiences and the information they find.

“For the month of March, the Character Trait of the Month is HONESTY. Honesty can be defined as speaking and acting truthfully. Not only can you demonstrate honesty by telling the truth, but doing the right thing and acting the right way... Even when you think no one is watching.”

Joke: I just saw my math teacher lock himself in his room with a piece of graph paper

The leprechauns have struck SWMS/SIS and left 4 jars filled with Skittles, one for each grade. Guess the number of Skittles in the jar and be the student in your grade who guesses closest to the correct number and win the jar of Skittles. Winners will be announced on Monday, March 18th. Stop in the office to see the jars and make your guess. Contest ends Wednesday, March 13th. Fifth grade your jar is located in Mrs. Sperling’s office.

THE END OF THE QUARTER IS WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13TH

Congratulations to the Drama team on a wonderful performance yesterday

Last call for donating tennis shoes at SWMS for the Soles 4 Souls project. To date, 72 pairs of shoes have been donated - thank you! The shoe drive will end on March 13; we need 28 more pairs to reach the goal of 100 pairs. All sizes and types of gently used shoes accepted.

Football Camp: Kirk Cousin's Middle School Football Camp

Kirk is excited to be running his first ever middle school camp in Minnesota! Kirk has designed his camp to be about building character and having fun while enjoying the game of football. The camp will be held at St Thomas University on June 14 and 15 and will be open to the first 80 participants for each grade. Kirk and his dad will also be speaking at a dad's/guardian lunch on June 15. You can register at kirkcousins.org.
