Are you above the line???

Some things that are inside your Comfort Zone today were outside your Comfort Zone when you were younger. Remember falling down when you first tried to walk or toppling over when you first rode a bike? Walking and riding a bike were outside your Comfort Zone. But because you failed and kept on trying to do those things, they're inside your Comfort Zone today.

What about school? Do you learn by doing everything correctly the first time? Of course not. Then don't let mistakes or failure stop you now. Keep trying and you'll get it.

Monday lunch: Chicken drumsticks, round pizza.

Tuesday lunch: Super nachos, mini corn dogs.
