MILITARY KID OF THE DAY:

Chloe DePew

I was born on a military base in Anchorage, Alaska, which was Elmendorf AFB. I lived there for a few years, but other than that I have only lived in South Dakota. Although my father is in the military, we didn't move around much, ultimately moving one time after I was born.. After my dad left SD, he lived on 3 more Air Force Bases. My experiences with him being in the military was that almost every summer, I would meet new people and be in new places. He was deployed a few times while I was younger, but as I got older he deployed less and less. He is currently deployed for one of his last deployments before he retires. I appreciate what he does for our country greatly because I know what he does personally. I understand that it can be hard to do what he does.

The FFA meeting has been postponed to April 22. The Greenhand conference @5:30 and meeting at 6 pm.

MONDAY LUNCH:

Philly steak, round pizza

TUESDAY LUNCH:

Super nachos, mini corn dogs
