

Scooper News

Monday December 3, 2018

“The doors of wisdom are never shut.” ~Benjamin Franklin

Thought of the day

“Smooth seas do not make skillful sailors.”

—African Proverb

Are you above the line???

We are authors of our lives. How well we do in life and how much fun we have along the way is completely up to us. Think of it this way: Bottom 80s survive, Top 20s thrive.

Sam’s Coffee Shop

We had a great start to the coffee shop yesterday. Don’t forget that coffee, French Vanilla & English Toffee cappuccino and hot chocolate will be served from 7:20 -8 am on Wednesday’s and Thursday’s. Coffee is $1 and the other drinks are $2. Proceeds to benefit SBHS drumline.

Two belated birthday announcements to Mr. Wilson on November 29 and Mr. Palmer on November 30.

Happy birthday to Mr. Peterson on December 1st!

Sturgis Scooper Ornaments $10

Glass tree ornaments that are custom made—white on gloss red. Available at SBHS main office, art room 304, during lunches and at athletic events during the month of December in the West gym.

Seniors: Start gathering your baby and toddler pictures for the Senior Slideshow. I would also like to have any group pictures of you and your classmates that you would like to share. These pictures must be school appropriate and labeled, so I know who is in the picture! Please bring them to Pam Anderson or email a JPEG image to pamela.anderson@k12.sd.us

Congratulations to the following football players on an excellent 2018 season.

- Best back: Cedrick Stabber
- Outstanding offensive lineman: Cy Eixenberger
- Outstanding defensive lineman: Zyairr Johnson-Landoll
- Most valuable linebacker: Trevor Erlenbusch
- Scout team player of the year: Dylan Gillespie
- Most valuable defensive back: Gavin West
- Rookie of the Year: Konnor Berndt
- Breakout player of the year: Justin Green
- Character Matters player of the year: Trevor Erlenbusch
- Doug Miller award: Gavin West
- All conference team: Gavin West, Trevor Erlenbusch, Cedrick Stabber, Cy Eixenberger, and Zyairr Johnson-Landoll.
- All state 1st team: Gavin West
- All state honorable mention: Cedrick & Trevor

MONDAY LUNCH
 Chicken drumstick
 Round pizza

TUESDAY LUNCH
 Super nachos
 Mini corn dogs